

Leo, we are going out
for a drink tonight.

Jack is coming too

Come with us!

Are you alright?
I shouldn't let you hold
it, it's too heavy.

I'm fine. Leo bumped me a little too hard just now.

Let's make a wish!

 ROAR

JOURNAL

The weather is beautiful
today, isn't it?

hahaha

Leo, we are discussing today's schedule for Jack. Can you give us a moment?

I'm so sorry Jack, the camera is too heavy for her to hold.

I'll take good care of Cheetah-B from now on,
and I will pay for your camera...

Of course it's not a secret!

I...I wished you to be strong and independent! And healthy!

Well, I'm flattered.
Thanks.

I'm already pretty strong and independent and healthy.

haha

What's wrong with me...?

I feel really strange these days...

Why am I so aware of what Cheetah-B is doing? I never really cared about it before...

...am I in love with her!?

By the way,
we are blocking the road.

Oh, sorry.

Roar Street Journal is working on a new project about the old trees in the city, and Jack is the photographer.

And that Jack...
what is he up to?

...

I wished for world peace and
good health for everybody!

What? Wishes won't come true
if we tell others!

Aww, come on.
I don't believe in that.

Unless...it's a secret that you can't tell us?

Like you are in love with someone or whatever

Oh my. I'm so sorry!

Don't worry,
it's water proof.

ROAR STREET JOURNAL

Under The Wishing Tree

Ever since Jack came to RSJ,
Leo has been acting a bit strange.

Thanks for saving me, Leaf.
Jack is so rude.

...

Cheetah-B just left like that, not even asking why I'm not coming...

She doesn't care about me...

apple cider

I wish Cheetah-B drops Jack's expensive camera into the water...

...and Jack will get angry and they argue...

We'll start shooting
over there.

Sure.

Nah...I'll go home...
I'm really tired...

Okay,
take care.

Cheetah-B is supposed to be with ME!

CRUSH

uh,
Sir...

.....

Hey Foxy, don't you think Leo is not himself when he is around Jack and Cheetah-B?

I hope he's alright

Yeah...maybe I'll ask him about it.

Wait. that's not good enough...

Wait a minute...

...Argh! It wasn't supposed to turn out this way!

What?

Never mind...
it's nothing.

Here's the famous wishing tree!

To protect the tree from vandalism, they built a pond surround it, and now we make wishes by tossing a penny into the water!

...then I will come in as a hero to save the day!

Enjoyed this episode?

Give some love to poor Leo and help him make up his mind!
